STORIES

ALWAYS WORTH THE PAIN

Having a son like Peter had always been a joy. He was the life of every party. Everyone loved him, most of all his doting parents. They would do anything to make him happy. He knew it too, as anyone would who had parents like Emily and Bill.

That's why he actually let himself believe that when he invited them to his wedding, they would go.

"David and I want you to be at our wedding," Peter said. "Please come."

It was virtually everything they stood against. What would they do now?
