There is only one reaction that occurs when we experience pain. And that is to get rid of it—now. How we react doesn't have to be learned, it doesn't depend on our personality, culture, social strata or upbringing.

If there is pain, we want it gone.

Dean Weber had the same reaction to a searing pain in his foot. In fact, he underwent multiple surgeries to get rid of the pain that was ruining his life. That was until God showed him there was something else he could do.

Lean in.
