WHAT DO WE REALLY BELIEVE ABOUT PRAYER?

Is how much you pray directly related to how much power you believe prayer actually holds? We may say we forget to pray, or that our days are too busy for prayer, or that there are too many other things that vie for our thoughts—and that is why we do not pray. But if we really believed that prayer was the power center that the bible describes and that Jesus clearly lived by, wouldn't prayer be the most returned-to act we did all day?

So what do you believe about the power of prayer to actually alter your life?

Read Pastor Jason Neese's blog post and become reacquainted with the power and potential of prayer.
