Kelli Adame looked around for help. There was none. She had called everyone. She had knocked on every door.

She looked within, as she had for months. And once again, there were no answers. To have fallen so far so fast was humiliating. She felt a hot wave of shame come over her. A bead of sweat appeared above her lip.

With a simple look at her bone-dry bank account and soaring debt, it would appear that Kelli had a serious money problem.

But she didn't have a money problem.

She had a soul problem.
