The Mission of the Rock Church is to Save, Equip and Send.

Miles McPherson is the Senior Pastor of the Rock Church and founder of DoSomethingChurch.org, a vibrant affiliation of churches around the world, dedicated to establishing Pervasive Hope in their communities through proactive community service. The Rock is one of the largest churches in the US and home to over 120 outreach ministries. In 2012, the Rock Church donated 233,712 hours of community service to the county of San Diego. By the time Lisa Walker Gilbert was four, she had already lived in 15 foster homes. When she arrived at the home of the woman who would adopt her, it was clear that the foster experience had left the four-year-old with severe abandonment issues; including being the size of an 18-month-old, unwilling to take her jacket off under any circumstance and inability to sleep anywhere but her home until she was 16.

Today, she is a social worker with a caseload that mainly consists of chronic runaways. It is gut-wrenching, emotionally draining work to place children into foster homes from which they will run away, have to be caught and then returned—only to have it happen over and over again until the child is 18.

Not long after she received Christ, she felt God was calling her to start a ministry. "I felt like God was telling me to take my experiences of being in the foster system, being a social worker and a Christian and combine them to change the lives of foster kids and parents.
