WHEN DID YOU BECOME A CHRISTIAN?

I gave my brokenness to Jesus in a real way at a Miles Ahead Crusade here in San Diego when I was in 8th grade. It was in my freshman year of high school that I committed my whole life to him while at Summer Camp.

WHAT DREW YOU TO BECOMING A PASTOR?

I think it was a culmination of many factors, seared in my mind was the impact that both Miles and the summer camp speaker had in my life. Also continuing to understand my own gifts and strengths narrowed my calling even more. At the end of the day I want to be true to who it is that God has made me to be. Today that person is a pastor, tomorrow it might be something different. I just want to be obedient to his leading, wherever or whatever that may be.

WHAT DREW YOU TO BECOMING A PASTOR TO 18 TO 25-YEAR-OLDS?

It came from a very sacred place: my own family. Both my brothers were in the 18-29 demographic when I started to be drawn to ministry. They were both church-burnt in their own unique ways and were having a hard time finding a correlation between the love of Jesus that we had heard so much of as kids, and the open arms of the church, which seemed to not have a place for them when they were in their darkest seasons as young adults. I wanted to not just help them connect those dots, but any other young person who was experiencing the same disconnect.

WHAT HAVE YOU LEARNED ABOUT THE STRUGGLES OF THAT AGE GROUP? Read Pastor Mingo's answer to this question and more at sdrock.com/stories.
