Why did you go into film production?

Two reasons. When I saw Star Wars, it blew my mind. I felt permanently changed by what George Lucas put on that screen and knew at that moment I wanted to be a part of it, somehow, somehow. I also wanted to act, but didn't have the confidence to be in front of the camera—but definitely could be behind it. So, when I was a teenager, and a TV show was doing some production near my house, I went out and volunteered to help. I was hooked.

So what was the journey that led you to Rock Church?

After college, I came through the advertising agency production ranks until I became a producer shooting for Mattel, Mazda, and Smokey Bear. Then I moved to New York and shot for Listerine and other pharmaceuticals. Then I was asked to produce the movie, To Save a Life, which was one of the craziest, most fulfilling experiences I've ever had. I finally began acting while in New York and I continue doing that today. Then I was asked to join the Rock in 2011 and have loved it.
