When and how did you become a Christian?

I grew up in a Christian home, so my first experience with Christ was more of a routine, legalistic viewpoint. We all got up early on Sundays and had to go to church, and had to pray before every meal because that's what Christians do, right? Well after years of living in religion and not fully understanding who Christ was and what He did for me, there was one moment I experienced God in a new way.

I was a teenager at a Youth Camp event and I felt God access me in a completely different way. I felt something different for the first time and someone helped me understand that it was the Holy Spirit. But because I grew up in religion, there were still some bad habits, and I still felt that God didn't approve of me because of my sin. I got myself into a dedicated group where a culture of discipleship was taught. I have totally grown in what the Lord is calling me to, and also, in defining my identity in Christ.
