Memory Verse

“But seek first his kingdom and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well.”

Matthew 6:33

1. How much does it take to be happy or content? What are the “basics” for you? What promises does God make in regards to material blessings? (Luke 12:22-34) _____

2. Paint a picture of someone who is rich in the eyes of God. Contrast that with a picture of someone who is rich in the eyes of this world. (1 Timothy 6:17-19) _____

3. How much does peace and contentment cost? (Proverbs 13:7; 15:6) _____

4. Do we, as Christians, have any responsibility for the poor of the world? (James 5:1-5)
Agree or disagree with the following quote:

“Before God and a billion hungry neighbors, we must rethink our values regarding our present standard of living and promote more just acquisition and distribution of the world’s resources Those of us who live in affluent circumstances must accept our duty to develop a simpler lifestyle in order to contribute more to both relief and evangelism. The rich must live more simply that the poor may simply live.”

5. Have you heard of Compassion International? Have you ever sponsored a child?
What are you doing for the sake of the poor today?

Romans 12:15

“Rejoice with those who rejoice...”

For those of you that missed our Leadership Development Meeting, we announced the departure of Pastor Clint Schmucker. God has moved him into a new position away from the ministry, and we are excited to see our brother begin this new season with his family!
