Brief Description of Major Duties: This position will be responsible for managing and coordinating all aspects of production for church wide events, Miles Ahead Crusades and Broadcast Ministry functions, to include: live event programming, technical arts and video production for weekend services, TV broadcast, radio broadcast and streaming media. Cultivate a ministry team of people who desire to serve Christ, use their technical gifts in ministry, and become a community of believers serving together. Lead the team of staff and volunteers to provide quality technical support for all of the ministries of the church and outside events. This means providing the highest degree of excellence in sound, lighting, video, and AV within the limits of the equipment and the policies of the church. Provide leadership in staying on the cutting edge technically and improving the use of the technical arts to enhance the ministries of the church. Establish an ongoing plan of recruitment, training, and supervising of staff and Volunteers. Recruit, interview, and hire associates for key positions in the production services department. Oversee the day-to-day operation of the technical arts department including the establishment of system planning, policy and procedure, volunteer enrichment, and staffing. This includes coordinating the calendar for scheduling technicians. Design and implement the technical needs for weekend services, special services, conferences, concerts, and productions. Establish and maintain relationships with vendors. Oversee the maintenance, operation, and purchasing of sound, lighting, video, and AV equipment owned by the church.

Qualifications & Requirements: Christ-centered behavior, i.e., treating people with dignity, respect, compassion and integrity at all times. Pursues continued personal spiritual growth, either small group or one-on-one. Demonstrates expertise and professionalism in the technical arts (audio, lighting, video, AV). Excellent leadership and management skills. Experience in conflict resolution. Excellent verbal and written communication skills. Self-motivated and flexible. Has a strong desire to be a part of a team. Able to manage the event calendar of the Technical Arts Department including organizing staff, volunteers and gear. Is prepared and on time for areas of responsibility. Stays up with the trends of the ministry through the Internet, periodicals, listening and watching tapes, reading books, and attending approved conferences / conventions. Attends and leads meetings as necessary, retreats and church functions as necessary. Leads by example in punctuality. Strong and effective administrative skills. Is the liaison between the special events department and the technical arts ministry in coordinating the technical needs for all outside guests/events. Partners with all of the ministries of the church in providing assistance, training and support in the technical arts. Attends all regular church services and, as directed/necessary, special services. Establishes and administrates the ministry budget. Establishes goals and implements strategies for ministry through the power and direction of the Holy Spirit. Ability to recognize and maintain confidentiality as appropriate. Signed acknowledgement of The Rock Church's Statement of Faith. Adheres to policies and procedures as stated in the Rock Church employee handbook. Member of The Rock Church.
