

Abraham, Father of Faith
Supernatural Turning Point
May 16, 2004

A supernatural and laughable pronouncement was made to Abraham and Sarah. (Genesis 17:17, 18:13)

Believers in Christ are encouraged to dream beyond laughable proportions. (Ephesians 3:20)

A supernatural purpose is marked by a new name.

Believers in Christ are called Christians. (Acts 11:26)

A supernatural parting from the world is marked by circumcision.

Believers in Christ have circumcised hearts.
(Romans 2:28-29)

A supernatural provision of the Promised Land was made.

Believers in Christ are blessed with God's provision.
(Matthew 6:28-34)

The supernatural preparation of Sarah's body enabled her to have a son at 90 years of age.

Believers in Christ are blessed with spiritual gifts.
(1 Corinthians 12)

A supernatural prerogative was given to Abraham.
(Genesis 17:1) "I am Almighty God; walk before Me and be blameless."

Soul Winner, So What: The only way you can walk before God and be blameless, is to be forgiven of your sins, and to be led by the Holy Spirit.
"Make that commitment today."
