

The Helper

Pastor Miles McPherson – July 23-24, 2005

John 16

Counselor (or paracl'ay'tos): Someone who helps in time of need.

Comforter: From the Latin word “fortis”, which means “brave”, and implies a helper who encourages bravery.

The Holy Spirit convicts the unbeliever:

Convict (or elegcho): To show fault or error through the act of cross examination with the intent of revealing truth.

1. The Holy Spirit convicts the world of sin by revealing the errors in our own ways, compared to God's perfect standard.
2. The Holy Spirit convicts the world of righteousness by confirming that Jesus is a righteous Lord.
3. The Holy Spirit convicts the world of judgment by confirming that sin's punishment is necessary and eminent.

The Holy Spirit's guides the believer:

Guide: To be a teacher; to give guidance; to lead one's way.

1. The Holy Spirit leads our minds into a place of understanding of the absolute truth of God's Word.
2. The Holy Spirit leads our hearts to understand the relevance of the truth to our lives.
3. The Holy Spirit leads our actions into compliance to the revealed truth of God's Word.
