Part 1, Transforming Authority

Pastor Miles McPherson – October 1-2, 2005

Mark 1

The Gospel of Mark teaches that Jesus has the authority to immediately transform your life for a predestined purpose.

A Background to the Book of Mark

1. Mark was:
  - a. the first gospel to be written.
  - b. a traveling partner for both Paul and Peter.
  - c. written to a Gentile, or non-Jewish, audience.
  - d. a book of action, which used the word immediately more than 40 times.

Jesus' "Immediate" Transforming Authority

2. "Immediately", Jesus' transforming authority is confirmed by God because He has been ordained worthy of our worship. Mark 1:2-3
Mark 1:10-11
  - a. His identity is confirmed by OT prophecy, John the Baptist, the Father, and the Holy Spirit.
3. "Immediately", Jesus' transforming authority is exercised by His dominance over demonic forces. Mark 1:12
Mark 1:21
  - a. His supernatural powers can also be displayed in your life.
4. "Immediately", Jesus' transforming authority is submitted to by those who follow Him. Mark 1:18
Mark 1:20
Mark 1:28
  - a. The Church will only be ready to fulfill its mission when you are ready to fulfill your mission.

If you are clear that your purpose has been determined from before time, it will be easy to step away from everything and accept His authority to immediately transform your life for service in His ARMY.
