

Transformed by Faith, Part 2

Transformed: Irritating Acts of Obedience

Pastor Miles McPherson – October 8-9, 2005

Mark 2-3

Sermon Review: Mark was the first gospel written, a book of action, written to a Gentile audience who were being persecuted in Rome. It uses the word immediately more than 40 times.

1. Why don't you forgive others like Jesus forgave others?
Transformation empowers you to forgive even those that hurt you.
2. Why don't you express God's love to sinners?
Transformation inspires you help the lost, without becoming lost yourself.
3. Why don't you submit to God's word, not tradition?
Transformation makes you biblically (not politically) correct.
4. Why don't you live according to the Spirit of the Law, not the Letter of the Law?
Transformation raises your personal standard for your role in the church.
5. Why don't you live a life of consistent "obedience" as your rule, rather than fearing man?
Transformation enables you to see criticism coming, and "obey" anyway.

Homework: Pick one act of obedience that you fear will bring criticism, and do it this week.
