

MObedience MOMentum

Book of Deuteronomy Part 5

Mo bless, No Curse! Deuteronomy 27-28
Pastor Miles McPherson – November 25-26, 2006
Memory Verse - Galatians 3:13

Ancient Treaty Format

Prologue - I have been a _____ good _____ God to you. (Deut. 1-3)

Stipulations - You need to _____ obey _____ me. (Deut. 4-26)

Document clause - Do not forget to _____ study _____ the rules. (Deut. 27)

List of Witnesses: I have _____ witnesses _____ to this agreement.

Blessings and Curse - _____ What if _____ scenarios. (Deut. 28)

Recapitulations - Final summary and _____ warning _____ . (Deut. 29-30)

Anatomy of Blessings and Curses

In the pagan world, to bless and curse means to cast a _____ spell _____ on someone.

In the biblical context, to bless and curse means to _____ predict _____ good or evil.

Everyone experiences some level of _____ both _____ blessings and curses in their lives.

1. Blessings and curses were the _____ consequences _____ of the _____ warnings of God. Deuteronomy 28:1, 15

2. Blessings and curses apply to _____ every _____ area of our lives, therefore _____ submit _____ your whole life in obedience. Deuteronomy 28:1-7, 15-19

3. Blessings and curses are not automatic, but dependent on the level of _____ obedience _____ in your relationship with God. Deuteronomy 28:1, 2, 9, 13, 14-15, 45, 47, 58

4. Blessings and curses _____ reveal _____ the best or worse of who you really are, therefore _____ choose _____ to be blessed. Deuteronomy 28:10, 14, 53-57

5. Curses are removed by Christ who became a curse for us, therefore _____ accept _____ his death as the penalty you owe for your sin. Galatians 3:13-14
