

Eternal Trust Part 4

Eternal Opportunity Matthew 25:14-30
Pastor Miles McPherson – January 20-21, 2007
Memory Verse - Joshua 1:9

There are two kinds of servants in the Kingdom of God, a good servant and a wicked servant. The distinction between the two are clear and simple to understand, as well as the fate of each type of servant. The consequences of this choice has eternal ramifications, so choose wisely which type of servant you would like to be.

Both types of servants:

Have been entrusted with the same opportunity.

Will have to give account to God for their stewardship of those talents.

Will be measured on the same scale.

Good servants: Matthew 25:20-24

1. Possess fruit that can be measured.
2. Are entrusted with increased responsibility.
3. Invite into the joy of the Lord.

Wicked servants: Matthew 25:24-31

4. Knowingly bury their talents in the ground.
5. Are aware that their talents belong to God.
6. Have a harsh view of God.
7. Over time will lose their opportunities to know and serve God.

Homework: Sign up at the Ministry Fair today in the Children's Center, 3558 Ruffin Rd.
