

Extreme Home Takeover Part 5

Enemy Behind The Gates

Pastor Miles McPherson – April 21-22, 2007

Memory Verse - Proverbs 15:22

Often Christians do not grow in their faith because of the people or relationships they have in their lives. The first order of business is to identify those who are stifling your walk and remove their influence from your life.

1. The enemy's traps are intentional and designed to destroy you. Joshua 9:1-11

2. The enemy's traps can be prevented by seeking wise counsel. Joshua 9:14

3. The consequences of the enemy's traps are passed on to friends and family. Joshua 9:18

4. The enemy's traps are sealed by your words and severed through prayer and repentance. Joshua 9:19

4. The enemy's traps cannot stand against God's miracles. Joshua 10:11-15

Homework: Do you feel trapped in a relationship or partnership with someone that is preventing you from being blessed? Prayerfully begin taking steps to end that relationship.

Extra credit: The Gibeonites were one of the groups of people that Israel was supposed to completely destroy. Can you find where it says that? Why was it commanded by God if in fact God is loving and all good? Hint: Deuteronomy 7, 20, Joshua 11.
