

Throne PART 4

Throne Away 2 Samuel 11-12
Pastor Miles McPherson – November 23, 2008
Memory Verse: Matthew 2:27-28

© 2008 Miles McPherson

Once David had achieved victory over his enemies, returned the ark to its proper place, and received assurance from God that he would always have a son on the throne, pride filled his heart. This physical adultery is akin to the spiritual adultery we commit when our hearts become independent of God.

Key People: David, Bathsheba (ancestor of Jesus: Matthew 1:3-6), Uriah and Joab

Context Quiz: Hebron, Jerusalem, Ark, Uzzah, Levites, Davidic Covenant.

War in Springtime: Clear roads, good weather and plants for food (for animals and men).

Do not love the world or the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world—the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life—is not of the Father but is of the world. 1 John 2:15-16

1. David forgot he was _____ . 2 Samuel 11

The lust of the flesh... 1 John 2:16

You need to acknowledge daily, that you are susceptible to your sinful nature.

2. David gave into his _____ eyes. 2 Samuel 11:2

Lust of the eyes... 1 John 2:16

Wanting what you see with your physical and imaginative eyes.

3. David placed himself _____ the law. 2 Samuel 11:3-27

And the pride of life... 1 John 2:16

I can get away with this!

Against You, You only, have I sinned, And done this evil in Your sight— That You may be found just when You speak, And blameless when You judge. Psalm 51:4
