

Throne PART 5

Throne to the Wind 2 Samuel 13
Pastor Miles McPherson – November 30, 2008
Memory Verse: Matthew 11:28-30

© 2008 Miles McPherson

David's son, Amnon, rapes his half sister, Tamar. He has no respect for himself, his sister, or God's law. Only his selfish desires drove him to do something so low. David's son threw all discipline and self-respect to the wind. Unfortunately, there are similarities between the core attitudes that drove Amnon to act so viscerously and men who take advantage of women. We will identify these similarities.

Characters: Absalom, sister Tamar, half brother Amnon, cousin Jonadab

In 2000, about 8 in 10 rape or sexual assault victims stated the offender was a boyfriend or girlfriend, other relative, a friend or an acquaintance.

Guilt - I did something wrong

Shame - I am something wrong

Lust seeks to satisfy self at the expense of others because lust wants to take.

Love seeks to satisfy others at the expense of self because love want to give.

1. Lust breeds sickness while love breeds health. 2 Samuel 13:2

2. Lust manipulates people while love speaks the truth. 2 Samuel 13:5

3. Lust forces sinful disobedience and love encourages God obedience. 2 Samuel 13:12

4. Lust hates responsibility while love fulfills its responsibilities. 2 Samuel 13:15

Do not hide your pain. Share your pain.
