

INVICTUS

David Cooper – July 19, 2009
Romans 8:35-39

Invictus: Latin-unconquerable; spirit that cannot be conquered

While developing and believing for an INVICTUS spirit:

There is fear .

There is physical and spiritual pain.

There is pressure .

There is reward .

1. An unconquerable spirit has to be broken down in order to be built up .

Requires spiritual surgery

2. An unconquerable spirit must go through unabandoned training.

Requires spiritual rehab

3. An unconquerable spirit must allow the old to become new.

Requires spiritual remix

4. An unconquerable spirit must believe all things are possible .

Results in spiritual victory
