At the Heart of Christmas season is a very simple promise, the eternal hope for all mankind brought into the world. This promise addresses three very simple questions.

- Who will be born?
- How will you know?
- Why will He be born?

Luke 1 provides us with the actual promise; Luke 2 verifies that the promise was fulfilled. On December 20 and December 24 we will dig into these perspectives of the Heart of Christmas.

1. Who will be born? Jesus, The _____ Son _____ of God, Son of the Highest.

2. How will you know? Jesus will be born of a _____ Virgin _____.

3. Why will He be born? To reign on the throne of David and over the House of Jacob. To reign over an _____ eternal _____ kingdom.

The Promise PART 2

Luke 2
