1. How we use it reveals our true spiritual condition.

For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also. Matthew 6:21

No servant can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one and love the other, or else he will be loyal to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and mammon.

Luke 16:13

“The fear of dealing with what God expects me to do with my money is exceeded by the fear of not dealing with it. I don't want to stand before him one day and try to give an answer for how I could call myself a disciple without ever coming to grips with money and possessions.”

“Money, Possessions, and Eternity” – by Randy Alcorn

2. God has given us clear and overwhelming directions on how we should use it.

Story of Zacchaeus (Luke 19:1-10)

Story of the Poor Widow (Mark 12:41-44)

Parable of the Rich Fool (Luke 12:13-21)

John the Baptist (Luke 3:7-14)

Ananias & Sapphira (Acts 5:1-11)

3. God will judge how we use it.

For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, that each one may receive the things done in the body, according to what he has done, whether good or bad. 2 Corinthians 5:10

Parable of the Talents. (Matthew 25:14-30)
