BIBLICAL NARRATIVE READING RULES

{Biblical Narratives are stories about real people in real time involved in real drama}

Identify:

God friends and Satan's friends

The Plot (How are God's friends attempting to build God's kingdom and in what way are Satan's friends resisting them?)

Plot Resolution (How does God, the hero, save the day?)

“But you are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood” 1 Peter 2:9-10

Read, pray and discover what God communicated to the people at the time of the writing. Read and research background information that you might find in the text itself.

When you read, identify:

Author – Who is the person speaking? This can be the person who wrote the biblical text or the person speaking in the Bible story.

Audience – What are the facts surrounding the target audience of the scripture?

Key People – To whom is the Biblical text written? What is the message or theme of the person speaking?

Time/Place – What is the location of the target audience? When is the activity in scripture taking place?

Discovery Questions

What does the Bible text reveal about God’s character? How is the author/speaker trying to encourage his audience to be more like God? What are themes and life lessons that are communicated through the text?

Reflect, pray and determine what is God communicating to us in the present?

What ‘character trait’ do I need to adopt? Why? What sinful character trait do you need to avoid? Why? What change in behavior is necessary in my life?

Take time to write a 6-8 sentence summary of what you learn and how God wants you to change because of it.

Respond by praying and deciding what God wants to do in and through you in the future?

Based on your reflections on what you determine God is communicating in the Bible text, decide what you need to do to apply His truths in your life. What am I going to do to use this character trait to improve my relationship with God? What am I going to do to apply the Biblical character trait to make me more like Jesus? What am I going to do to improve others with that character trait? Is there sin to repent of? Is there someone you need to forgive, serve or speak to?
