Rape myths: d.umn.edu/cla/faculty/jhamlin/3925/myths.html

Myth: Rape is sex.

Fact: Rape is as an act of violence that is about power not sex.

Myth: Most rapists only rape one time.

Fact: Most rapists rape again, and again, and again - until caught.

Myth: Women incite men to rape.

Fact: Research has found that the vast majority of rapes are planned.

1. Do not hold onto your peace - _____ God's peace.

Romans 5:1, Matthew 11:30, Proverbs 4:23

2. God's _____, not your pain, should rule your life.

3. You are not _____ in your pain.

Answer these questions and discuss in your group this week:

1. Have you or anyone you've met been a victim of sexual misconduct of any kind?
2. How has that occurrence hindered or damaged your view of sexual intimacy of any kind?
3. Read Romans 5:1-5 and discuss the power the gospel has in your life in the midst of our sufferings. How does this encourage you?
