A POSITION OF WORSHIP

BY KIMMIE MARIE

*In joining the winged creature
I begin to taste my tears
As my body prepares its correct posture
All begin to be surrendered, including my fears*

*Coming in contact with the ground,
My knees take their place with their clay
Ready to lay, Heaven bound*

For, "the Lord God formed man of the dust of the ground."

*Therefore, my position is in relation to my formation
Serving as a platform for complete adoration*

*Out there screams with commotion
In here there are whispers full of emotion
Confusion surrounds and consumes the one I fight
Serenity and clarity overwhelm me as He Covers me with all His might*

*Heart in complete fixation, eyes fixed upon my Savior
My lips communicate my soul's connection..its connection with its creator*

For, "this is my position."

Answer these questions and discuss in your group this week:

1. Spend a few minutes reflecting on the WORSHIP series thus far. How has your life been changed by your understanding of worship? What are some areas that have been profoundly impacted?
2. Spend the remainder of your time examining Ephesians 6:10-20 as a group. Now take this time to discuss what it means to be protected by each piece of the armor as mentioned in this passage. What do you suppose the overall concept of "the armor" is referring to, and why?
