

THE FREEDOM PROJECT

Pastor Miles McPherson - April 29, 2012

God is not as concerned about purifying your actions as much as purifying your motivations.

Pure motivations can only produce pure actions.

A slave of righteousness is free from sin and death.

Selfish motivation: I am motivated to be better at _____ than you.

1. Godly motivation: I am motivated to _____ invest _____ in others by

_____.

The Great I Am is evident in what I do.

Selfish motivation: I am motivated to be more affirmed by _____ than you.

2. Godly motivation: I am motivated to _____ speak life _____ into the lives of others.

The Great I Am is evident in what I say.

Selfish motivation: I am motivated to possess more _____ than you.

3. Godly motivation: I am motivated to be the _____ conduit _____ of God's blessings.

The Great I Am is evident in what I give.

The Holy Spirit produces the fruit of spiritual freedom in our lives.

Answer these questions and discuss in your group this week:

1. Have you ever felt like you were trying to impress someone by your good deeds? How did you feel, and what was the outcome of that relationship? What was the motivation for your good deeds?

2. Read Romans 6:15-23 as a group. Are your motivations for good deeds revealing that you are a slave to sin or a slave to righteousness?

3. Read Ephesians 2:8-9 as a group. Based on this passage, how should your motivations change to reflect this reality? How does the concept of the grace of God in your life motivate you?
