Movie: Despicable Me

Scene: Super-villain Gru has a flashback of his childhood, remembering how critical, disapproving and defeating his mom was to him.

Scene one of David's life reveals David as a child allowing the Lord to determine his calling - not his family's opinion or his earthly position. -1 Samuel 16

Question: Are you allowing the Lord's opinion to matter most?

Movie: Warrior

Scene: Wayward son Tommy returns home with a secret, a heart full of hate and is driven by pain to take on an impossible challenge.

Scene two of David's life as a young man reveals that his passion and determination was driven by inner peace, and the peace provided supernatural power to do the impossible.
-1 Samuel 17

Question: Are you driven by inner peace or is your heart conflicted with unforgiveness, pain and hurt?

Movie: Despicable Me

Scene: Super-Villain Gru trades in his lifestyle of being a villain to take on a new role as the adoptive Daddy of three orphan girls.

In scene three of David's life we find David face to face with a choice to do the right thing or do his own thing. His Godly conviction offered him healthy options. -1 Samuel 24

Question: Are you up against a choice to do the right thing or do your own thing? Do the right thing, You will never regret it!

Movie: Warrior

Scene: Wayward son Tommy offers compassion to his recovering alcoholic abusive father Paddy when he relapses after realizing his mistakes of the past are here to haunt him.

In scene four our hero King David is at the end of his life, sad and broken because he is reaping what he has sowed. The Lord has compassion on David, but he does not finish well.
-Psalm 142

Question: Are you reaping what you sowed in life? Now is the time to confess, repent and turn from regret. Finish well family!
