The four kids of dysfunction:

Hero - super kid, the little parent
Scapegoat - troublemaker
Loner - the quiet one who flies under the radar
Mascot - family or class clown

A - What the mascot looks like on the outside:

- Funny, hysterical, anything for a laugh, cute, immature

B - What the mascot feels on the inside:

- Hides pain with humor, scared, feels inadequate

C - What the mascot means to the family:

- They bring comic relief to the family
- They help the family avoid issues

D - As an adult without help:

- Continues to build up pain
- Lets others tell them what to do too much
- Too much of a follower
- Never grows up

E - What the mascot can become:

- Can feel a range of emotion
- Can use laughter in good ways
- Learns to take the lead more
- Grows up into more responsibility

1. Be convinced that a _____ permanent _____ solution is needed.

- Acknowledge that there is a problem that needs fixing.

2. Present the _____ facts _____ without focus on the person.

- Focus on the issues and not the people.
- No accusations, no name calling or fault-finding, just the facts.
- Help me understand this.
- Explain this to me?
- How is that working for you?
- Here is how it is working for me.

3. Speak _____ God's _____ Word to them with love.

- The Holy Spirit convicts and changes hearts.
