

Weekly Quiz

For the week of September 11-17, 2005

True Religion? Part 6

Catholicism

Pastor Kyle Osland – September 10-11, 2005

Questions

1. T/F Discussing Roman Catholicism deals with over 1,500 years of history and over one billion people.
2. T/F According to Martin Luther, the church is composed of two parts, the visible and invisible.
3. T/F “The unexamined life is not worth living” is a statement by Plato.
4. T/F The foundation for our knowledge of truth is the Bible.
5. The Roman Catholic Church began when _____ made Christianity the official religion of the Roman Empire.
6. Roman Catholicism equates _____ and _____ as equal foundations for truth.
7. According to Catholic teachings, the _____ is infallible, that is, without errors in making decisions for the church.
8. From a Biblical perspective, _____, not the _____, is the head of the church.
9. Direct access to God through Christ comes through _____ in Him.
10. Because of what Christ does for us, we have no need for a _____ to mediate in our relationship with God.

Answers

- 1) True; 2) True; 3) False; 4) True; 5) Constantine; 6) Scripture, tradition 7) Pope
- 8) Jesus, Pope; 9) believing; 10) person