A Rock Sports Ministry Leader's influence extends beyond the knowledge of their sport and reaches into the lives of the individual participants. It is one of the most important responsibilities to lead by example the life of Jesus Christ.

I understand as a Rock Sports Ministry Leader I will be a spiritual leader to all I come in contact with. I agree to the following:

- Upholding the Rock Church, Mission, Vision & DNA
- Model appropriate language and Christ-centered behavior at all times
- Respect and dignify each participant as an individual
- Promote safety in practice and competition
- Maintain CPR/First Aid certification (provided once per year by Rock Church Sports Ministry)
- Complete offered courses to become self sufficient in Rock policies. EX. Individual webpage, promotions, room reservations, etc.
- Implement a Spiritual Component to the ministry by conducting group devotions, considering the spiritual growth of each individual
- Complete Monthly Ministry Report by due date
- Promote my specific ministry at the annual Rock Church Ministry Fair to ensure maximum participation, and follow up with all interested individuals within two (2) weeks
- Communicate with ministry inquires (emails/phone calls) outside annual Ministry Fair, within 24 hours
- Regularly attend Quarterly or semi-annual Rock Sports Leadership meetings
- Partner with another Rock Church outreach ministry at least one time per year for community service or to benefit that particular outreach ministry.
- Partner with a community group to have your ministry serve at a local event, which benefits them.

I understand these ministry leadership responsibilities and commit to following them to the best of my abilities. I also understand that this new ministry will be evaluated under a 90-day probationary period, and that at any time during that period or beyond, this ministry may be terminated at will at the discretion of the Rock Sports Executive Director.
