ROCK HEROES

MELISSA & RAMON ALVAREZ SHARE MINISTRY
AUGUST 2009 • ROCK HEROES

In a "Me First" culture, Ramon and Melissa Alvarez are making a difference in the lives of people in need through the Share Ministry. They not only share the blessings God has given them, they organize others to do the same.

Now housed in a 1,500-square-foot building in Mission Valley, Share Ministry supplies clothing and other essential items to those who cannot afford to buy them. In the warehouse, there is a donated supply of men's, women's and baby clothing, appliances, shoes, and even baby furniture.

The idea for Share was born when Melissa got involved with Toys for Joy. For three years, she ran the outreach that blesses hundreds of families in Barrio Logan every year at Christmas with toiletries, food and clothing. She says these basic things can restore hope and let a family know that someone loves them. It is often just what they need to get them back on track.
