WHERE ARE YOU FROM?

I grew up near Placerville, between Sacramento and Tahoe, which is gold country, the land of tall trees, lakes, creeks and lots of ways to get lost and in trouble. Sorry, I regressed for a moment.

DO YOU HAVE A FAMILY?

I've been married to Brenda for 26 years. We got married when we were 12:). We have Caitlin (23), Daniel (21), Nathan (18), and Emily (16).

WHY DID YOU BECOME A PASTOR?

When I was in 8th grade, I started going to a Christian school. When I'd run into kids that I had gone to public school with, they'd call me "pastor boy." Something about that title intrigued me and obviously, it stuck.

WHAT WERE THE CIRCUMSTANCES THAT LEAD YOU TO THE ROCK?

I had three different mentors tell me that God was preparing me for a bigger assignment. When I heard about the opening for the Community Groups Pastor position, I thought, "Hey, this might be it." And it was.

WHAT ABOUT BEING THE COMMUNITY GROUPS PASTOR APPEALED TO YOU?

The opportunity to help develop ministry that potentially will impact tens of thousands of lives. That excites me.

WHY IS BEING IN A COMMUNITY GROUP SO IMPORTANT?

God designed us to live in community with other believers (Heb 10:24-25). In fact, only about 10% of people will successfully experience life change apart from being in an accountable community. Plus, they are great places to make new friends, grow closer to Christ, and serve our neighborhoods.

SO YOU LOVE WHAT YOU DO, PASTOR BOY?

That's Mr. Pastor Boy to you.
