ROCK STORIES

THE WEEKLY

FAMILY MOVIE NIGHT // 6.28
NTC Park
sdrock.com/e12338

What most people don't know is that our servicemen typically fight two wars: the one they deploy to and the one they come home to.

They commonly return home devastated from battle, injured and angered or crushed over making it home while their buddies didn't. Back home, their wives struggle to make friends and are broke. Even worse, the couples are commonly just out of their teens when they reunite.

Marriages rarely survive. Nearly 85% of all marriages where the husband has deployed multiple times end in divorce—which contributes to the staggering suicide rate: 1-2 active-duty servicemen attempts suicide every day.

Doug Barron, the leader of CRU Military, a partner to the Rock's military ministry sees restoring marriages as mission critical. "If we want our servicemen to perform their duties well they must have stable homes. The love of Christ can save their marriages and heal their emotional wounds. We can't allow their marriages to be a casualty of war."
