The Mission of Rock Church is to Save, Equip, and Send.

Miles McPherson, a former defensive back with the San Diego Chargers, is the Senior Pastor of Rock Church and founder of DoSomethingChurch.org - a vibrant affiliation dedicated to establishing Pervasive Hope in their communities through proactive community service. Rock Church is one of the largest churches in the US and home to over 140 outreach ministries. Rock Church hosts 18 services every weekend, with a weekly attendance of over 15,000 people at their four locations in San Diego County. In 2012, Rock Church members donated 233,712 hours of community service to the county of San Diego - a $4 million value. Last year, Rock Church expanded to include a campus in east San Diego county and continues on with God's work to reach every street and every person for Jesus.

What was the journey that led you to your current post at Rock Church?

I was a salesperson for a company that really cultivated a culture of ethical compromise in order to increase sales numbers—and I was miserable. I was in a spiritual battle every day. What was weird was that I was so upset about my job that I did terribly and my sales numbers were awful, yet they kept firing people for underperforming and their numbers were better than mine! I kept thinking, How do I still have a job?

I was attending Rock Church and I heard Pastor Miles say that you should make room in your life for Jesus, to treat Him as if He is right there with you. So I actually cleared a spot in my office for Jesus to come be with me. I kept a Bible on my desk, and even when management told me to put it away, I protested and kept it visible. They stopped harassing me about it. But I was resolute in giving my life and job to God, and pleaded with Him to give me a new path.

At the same time, I started volunteering with the Recycle Ministry here at the Rock. I loved it so much that it made me feel even more miserable about my day job. Serving God made me happy—working for my current employer did not! A job with the Rock's Events team opened up and I applied thinking I would be a shoo-in because I had events experience and I was already a part of the Recycle Ministry. But I never heard back. I was crushed. God, haven't I made room for you in my life?
