

FEATURED STORY

BY DAVE FRANCO

THE MUSLIM MINISTRY & THE NEW PERSPECTIVE

At a time when the Muslim faith is getting so much attention and is at the center of so much controversy, Amber found herself feeling called to reach out to them even though she is not Muslim or has any history with the religion in any way. She stepped out in faith and started Rock Church's Muslim Ministry—an effort to communicate the love of Jesus and have educated conversations about Christ while making Muslim friends.

And while the number of Muslim converts to Christianity is skyrocketing in refugee camps across the Middle East, an interesting set of circumstances has changed the ministry's perspective about the ease of converting Muslims in America.

It appears as though the freedom to practice religion here in the United States, plus good economic times and relative safety has created a Muslim of a far different stripe than those found in the refugee camps where life is incredibly, almost unfathomably difficult. The need for a Savior is vastly different.

But where there could be disappointment, there is much joy. Over time
