

DIALED IN

A DIALED IN SPIRIT

Miles McPherson / February 25, 2018 / Zechariah 4:6

ICEBREAKER:

Luke 4:1-2 tells us about how Jesus relied on the power of the Holy Spirit to not only get Him through 40 days of fasting in the wilderness but to subsequently resist the temptation in a time of intense need.

What may you, do you, have you, or will you need the Holy Spirit to get you through?

ENCOURAGEMENT:

Jesus immediately declared truth in His response to this temptation. What statement of truth did He declare?

The same account in Luke 4 says that Jesus was full of the Holy Spirit. It doesn't say HOW He got full of the Holy Spirit. How did Jesus get full of the Holy Spirit? In what ways can we get filled by the Holy Spirit? After or during an attack or a temptation how do we respond? How should we respond?

SCRIPTURE:

Scripture tells us not to worry about tomorrow's problems but to focus on today. The difference between worry and preparation is measured in hours. Worrying is evidence of the anticipation of failure. Faith and preparation (doing something) is evidence of the anticipation of success!

Which of the following verses declare this truth?

(a) Matthew 6:34 (b) Matthew 6:25 (c) Psalm 55:22 (d) Luke 12:25 (e) All of these

What are some other verses that teach us about how to deal with worry, fear, and anxiety?

PRAYER:

The Father, Son, and Holy Spirit all exist as God, and work together as one. We cannot do ANYTHING without the Holy Spirit whom the Father promised and Jesus has sent.

Take the opportunity to receive that same Spirit.

Take a moment to pray and declare these truths to the Father.

I declare that I believe that you are God.

I declare my faith in Your active role in my life to transform me and perform the miraculous through me.

I declare my faith is that the Holy Spirit wants to do in my life what He did in Jesus' life.

I declare that I can do nothing in the kingdom of God without the Holy Spirit.

I declare my expectation is that the Holy Spirit will move in my life.

Father, You said that if I asked, You would send the Holy Spirit; I am waiting in expectation for Him to come.
