Satan's Strategy: self doubt is created and satanic solutions are provided.

Jesus says, "Trust Me and remember: it is written."

Lust of the flesh: a strong sinful desire to have something

Remember, we are not entitled to have all natural desires fulfilled. (v. 3-4)

Satan says, "Are you really in control and able to get what you want, such as _____?"

Satan says, "Prove it by exercising your personal power."

Jesus says, "Trust Me and remember: it is written _____,
_____, _____."

Pride of life: the disease of "me" inflating my sense of self (v. 5-7)

Satan says, "Are you really "somebody" in the eyes of others?"

Satan says, "Prove it by outdoing other people."

Jesus says, "Trust Me and remember: it is written _____,
_____, _____."

Lust of the eyes: possessions that are pleasing and impressive (v. 8-10)

Satan says, "You need status symbols to prove your worth."

Satan says, "Worship me and I can give you those status symbols."

Jesus says, "Trust Me and remember: it is written _____,
_____, _____."
