Homework Questions

Bring this with you to small group this week.

1. What in your life do you wish was different?

---

---

2. What would you change if you had the means and opportunity to do so?

---

---

3. The Bible says that we were created for something different. What do these verses tell us about God's purpose in creating us?

Jeremiah 29:11-13 _____

Romans 12:2 _____

1 Corinthians 3:18-19 _____

4. The Bible also tells us that we are different from the world that we live in, that we are created for a different kind of place. Read Philippians 3:20-21

What does it mean to have "citizenship" somewhere? How does a "change in citizenship" change someone's life? _____

Miles gave us 4 "new approaches" we adopt as citizens of heaven. Which one, if you followed it with reckless abandon, would most change your life? _____

5. What is preventing you from following that "approach" completely? What specifically can you do this week to follow that "approach" with reckless abandon?

---

6. The world is desperately seeking something different. How does having a citizenship in heaven allow you to live in "a different world?" How does that "world" give you a new perspective on this life? How would you describe what you have to someone else who is seeking it?
