

Road Trip - Book of Numbers Part 10

No Short Cuts Numbers 32

Pastor Miles McPherson – September 30 - October 1, 2006
Memory Verse - 1 Corinthians 2:9

Throughout our spiritual journey, we will be tempted to take shortcuts, which appear to bring us God's blessings sooner than God has planned. We must be confident, that while there may seem to be benefits, the unknown consequences make the shortcut not worth taking.

Shortcuts:

1. _____ Short circuit _____ the blessings for everyone, therefore Numbers 32:1-15
consider your team.

2. Result in _____ second best _____, therefore consider the benefits Numbers 32:1-5 of the process.

3. Require more _____ sacrifice _____ in the long run, therefore be Numbers 32:16-19 faithful in the little things.

Homework: Follow through on your commitment to a Small Group or Ministry.

Extra Credit: Re-read Numbers 13-14 and develop a cheat sheet with 5-10 new facts about the incident at Kadesh Barnea and the men who spied out the land. Use this cheat sheet you would to teach and witness to someone about this incident. Also, compare it to the situation with Reuben and Gad not wanting to go into the Promised Land.
