Memory Verse: 2 Samuel 14:14

Everyone in leadership will have enemies. Some will be your close friends, while others you will never meet. Sometimes they band together. They will talk behind your back, attack your integrity, and undermine your authority.

In the end they will not be blessed. Let me encourage you; do not be discouraged by them. If God is for you, they cannot defeat you.

Key People: David, his son Absalom, Ahithophel.

Absalom at the gate: Absalom, David's son, undermined David's throne and stole the hearts of the people by poisoning them against the king by accusation.

1. Let me tell you what the King/God _____ should _____ have done. 2 Samuel 15:1-3
2. Let me tell you what I/the Devil _____ would _____ do if I were king. 2 Samuel 15:4
3. Follow me, I just crowned _____ myself _____ king. 2 Samuel 15:5-10
4. _____ Decide _____ today if you want to follow Absalom or David. 2 Samuel 15

DO Something! Read 2 Samuel 14-15 and answer these questions:

How long was Absalom a fugitive?

What role did the woman of Tekoa play in bringing Absalom back to Jerusalem?

What city did Absalom become king of and what did this city have in common with his father David? 2 Samuel, 2:11, 15:7.

Can you identify what your Spiritual Absalom, the devil, has been telling you about God?
