The four kids of dysfunction:

Hero - super kid, the little parent
Scapegoat - troublemaker
Loner - the quiet one who flies under the radar
Mascot - family or class clown

A - What the loner looks like on the outside:

- Loner, daydreamer, drifts and floats, quiet, shy, and ignored.
- Stays off the radar.
- Isolated, withdrawn from reality.

B - What the loner feels on the inside:

- Unimportant
- Not allowed to have feelings
- Hurt
- Abandoned
- Defeated

C - What the loner means to the family:

- They offer the family relief.
- They are the kid no one worries about.
- They are the good kid.

D - As an adult without help:

- Indecisive, can't say no.
- Alone, unable to feel, very low self-esteem.
- Terrified of intimacy, relationship phobia.

E - What the loner can become:

- Independent, creative, imaginative, resourceful.
